

Types of Shows

Stage Show

A high energy show with audience interaction, comedy and magic that takes you on a rollercoaster ride wondering how did he do that but more importantly why. Typically the show runs 30 to 40 minutes.

Table Hopping/Walk Around Magic

This is a very special and personal type of magic. It can be used in a dinner atmosphere from table to table, or at an event where people are mingling. Nick provides in your hands, eye popping close up magic.

Festival Show/Grounds Act

Nick has a character Auzzie Le Rue. Now this show is an added bonus to any fair or festival. No announcement is needed, Auzzie Le Rue sets up in any open area or stage. (Excluding next to a band or music playing.) Within minutes people crowd in to see what's happening. Some have said it takes a crow bar to force your way close enough. Typically 3 to 5 shows per day, each running 25 to 30 minutes.
